

Double Your Coverage

American General Life Insurance Company (American General Life) announces the Double Your Coverage program — an outstanding, limited-time opportunity for you to increase your life insurance coverage. Double Your Coverage enables select policy owners who purchased coverage from American General Life within the past three years to obtain additional protection with reduced paperwork and no exams or lab work.

Have events in your life changed since you purchased your life insurance policy? Maybe you have a new job, new children, a new marriage, divorce or other change in your circumstances. Now is a great time to consider the need for additional insurance and perhaps take advantage of American General Life's Double Your Coverage program.

Applications under the Double Your Coverage program must be submitted by March 31, 2010, so contact your agent today.
